CLUB NIGHT NOTICES

Our season official has finished - we had our last regular weekly club night at the end of March, with a bit of an early Easter celebration. April has been a relaxed month with nothing much going on; we will introduce a couple of monthly Club Nights when we have organised this. Our last official Club event is our Presentation camp weekend at Barrabadeen at the beginning of May.

Just a reminder that those planning on going to the camp should have reserved their campsite by now, or should do so ASAP. Alternatively, if you can't make the entire weekend we would love to see members on the Sunday when we hold the Presentations.
