Season 2020-21

Fifth Short Course Carnival

Biem standing on the (ancient concrete!) blocks together with a lineup of Cooktown swimmers, with the imposing Mt Cook behind.

It was an auspicious occasion: the first carnival for Cooktown after an absence of seventeen years! After their appearance at a couple of tableland carnivals, Stingrays felt urged to give them what support we could. Both Stingrays and Central Cairns were present in numbers, along with a contingent from Mareeba and smattering from other clubs.

It was a well-planned 'late' carnival, allowing travelling time on the Saturday morning for an early afternoon start, going into the early evening. Our members had booked overnight accommodation in various venues in town, with many arranging a rendezvous at the Bowls Club for dinner.

Our swimmers performed well, with everyone who attended getting placement awards, according to the table, right, and the entire meet went smoothly. In terms of p.b. improvements, perfect scores were achieved by Jamie, Patrick, Eva and Biem, followed by Naomi and Jitte with 'full scores-less-one'.
