Nathan Foote achieved 5 p.b.'s of his nine races

Belle Potts showing off her new goggles at the start of her race

With an early morning departure from Cairns in the rain, it was inevitable that the rain would peter out somewhere prior to reaching Mareeba - this was indeed the case; while the carnival started under cloudy conditions, it wasn't long before it gave way to clear sky for the rest of the day - and a rather hot one at that.

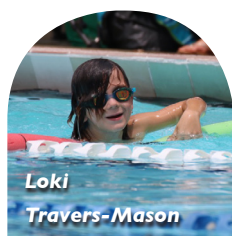

While our club had a healthy presence, many rival clubs were conspicuous by their absence, choosing to travel to Townsville's Gardens Carnival; this meant less competition for our swimmers! We had a healthy medal tally shown by the placements table here, headed by Ryan and Triton. In the p.b. stakes, it was the younger swimmers who came out making great strides, with Belle Potts achieving p.b.'s in all her three races. Other achievers were Emma Winter and Nathan Foote, followed by Hayden, Loki, Bonnie, Maggie, Edward and Nate.

There were other achievements on the day:- several swimmers swam in new events... most notably, Natalie Beck swam her first 400m free; Mia and Jamie their first 100m free and Jamie also swam 100m breast; Kai did her first 50m fly and 100m back; Siena did her first 50m fly; Jennifer did her first 200m IM; and Adam Foote, his first 200m back! (at age 18).

After this rather long, hot day, a few families felt inclined to make a stop at the Emerald Creek Ice-Creamery on the way home!
