On a decidedly bleak day from the outset, driving to the Tablelands through showers and occasional 'driving' rain. It did let up gradually through the day, but it remained a cold day, very out-of-season; reports say it only reached 18°C there in Malanda - and a contrast from the conditions experienced over the last couple of Malanda Carnivals.

Stingrays presented a different lineup of swimmers - this time focussed on the very young ones, with a few doing their first carnival; the format saw the start of the carnival as the 'Mini Dolphins' section, devoted to newbies doing 25m races. We had Charlee and Kaycee Bolton, Darcy and Ella Oliver, and Luis Milne making their debuts. Newcomer Maddison Sharples swam for the first time as an older swimmer.

Placegetters received ribbons as per the Placements table, right, while those who performed best on the day (improving the most of their events) include Audrey, Bonnie, Nate, Daniel, Jamie and Belle Potts.
