Season 2018–19

First Short Course Carnival

Albert came first in all his ten events, with all p.b.'s, shaving almost 41s off in total.

The unofficial beginning of the new season is taken to be the start of the brief short course season, which this year comprises only two preparation meets (both staged by TAS) and then the short course FNQ Championships.

TAS' first meet was over two days at their own pool and both days were overcast with a threat of showers, but fortunately we only experienced brief spitting for a short while on Saturday; otherwise it was ideal conditions for the swimmers. Each day's schedule began at 9am, but finished by early afternoon, enabling families time for their own domestic necessities!

Achievements-wise, our swimmers did outstandingly well, as can be attested in the Placements table to left, with a perfect record attained by Albert An who improved in all his ten events and placed first in all ten. Other swimmers who p.b'd all their races were - Natalie, Edward Diola, Alex, Sophie, Patrick, Kelsey, Callum, Triton, Ryan, and newcomer to our club, Jennifer Swaney.

Natalie Beck diving in for her 100m Individual Medley; she improved her p.b.'s by over 31s combined.

Callum starting his backstroke; he improved his p.b.'s by nearly 33s overall
