Central Cairns Swimming Club held their carnival at the Woree Pool, with their 'Tadpoles' mini carnival – for young swimmers aged 10 and under, to start off the day. The group photo above shows all the young competitors, which includes nine on behalf of Stingrays (names listed above-left). I believe they all enjoyed themselves, especially when they could select lollies afterwards!

The main carnival followed after an hour warm-up break, and included two relay events – for Freestyle and the IM. and had to be made up of a mix of ages. The relays were not timed, and were just for a bit of fun. Placement results were under one '8 & Over' policy, so were not multi-aged. As for 'personal best' times, Natalie Beck came out on top getting p.b's in all of her four events; the other swimmers featured here all swam four events, and p.b'ed in three of them. Most impressive p.b. came from Daniel Staska in his 50m Backstroke, of 18.45 seconds.

Isabella swimming her 100m Butterfly; she got 3 p.b's of her 4 events

Daniel Staska in his 50m Backstroke, in which he p.b'ed over 18s
