Dimbulah is a great family-friendly carnival to attend, with a camping option allowing families to make a weekend of it if they wish. This year our numbers were down at this particular meet, with thirteen nominated, and eleven attending. The largest attendance was from Cooktown, with 32 swimmers.

This was a slightly momentous occasion since it was the final carnival two of our older boys would be competing in: Ryan and Connor, both aged 19 made it their last appearance before they both depart for career advancements - unfortunately leaving their mate Nathan to hold the fort as the last remaining 'mature Stingray!' (PS. there is another...)

In terms of swimming performances, the girls featured here achieved good improvements: Ivy, and Kaia both p.b.'ed every race they swam - with Ivy swimming four, and Kaia swimming two races. Zara and Isabel both achieved three out of four p.b.'s. Natalie ranked next with two of her four.
